

Food

Sofia Levin

Culinary Travel Journalist & Presenter

Sofia Levin is a journalist and presenter who celebrates cultural diversity through food.

Australia's answer to a female Anthony Bourdain, she's known for her enthusiasm for food, culture and eating curiously. Her #EatCuriously movement encourages people to order outside their comfort zone in order to better understand others and themselves.

Raised culturally Jewish in multicultural Melbourne, Sofia appreciates the importance of identity and the beauty of diversity. She's spent her life exploring culture through the lens of food.

Sofia has spent more than a decade writing and reviewing for publications such as Lonely Planet, Good Food, SBS Food, Domain Review, National Geographic Traveller, The Guardian, delicious., Broadsheet, in-flight magazines and more. In 2020 she launched Seasoned Traveller, a website dedicated to sharing lesser-known food stories from around the world.

Column: "Out For" – restaurant review column in Domain Review

Contributions: Good Food, SBS Food, Domain Review, The Guardian, delicious., Get Lost, Broadsheet

Appearances: MCing/hosting/talent for Melbourne Food & Wine, Gourmet Escape, Western Melbourne Tourism, Domain Review, Intrepid Travel, Lonely Planet

Endorsement: Tourism Australia, Trade Tasmania, Visit Victoria, City of Melbourne, Invisalign, Empty Esky Intrepid Travel, Republic of Azerbaijan Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Travel Texas and Tourism Authority of Thailand.

Social Media

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/sofiaklevin/>

<https://www.instagram.com/seasonedtravellerhq/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SofiaLevinEats>

Website: <https://www.seasonedtraveller.com>