Food Personality, Author

In 2020 Australia welcomes back to our screens one of the countries most loved cooks, Callum Hann. He joined MasterChef alumni in the pursuit to find out who is the 'best of the best' in Channel 10's new MasterChef series Back to Win in 2020, coming fourth.

It's been a decade since we met a young and enthusiastic Callum Hann, a university student from South Australia. With his genuine, affable nature and razor-sharp cooking skills, Callum fast became a fan favourite, tipped to take out the title. In the highest ever rating MasterChef series, the nation watched and cheered as the talented and genuine Callum narrowly missed out on the winner's title, finishing as runner up. Not content with his place Callum returned 2 years later to take out the winner's title in the MasterChef All-Stars series.

In 2012, he released his first cookbook "The Starter Kitchen", and in 2014 released his second cookbook, "I'd Eat That!". In 2016 Callum co-authored his third cookbook Quick. Easy. Healthy. featuring a collection of Sprout's most popular cooking class recipes.

In 2011 he co-founded Sprout, a 100% hands-on interactive cooking school, followed by Sprout Health Studio in 2015, Sprout Training in 2017, and Dietary Hawk in 2018.

2020 was a very busy year for Callum with the opening of his 2 restaurants Lou's Place in the picturesque Barossa Valley and bar and restaurant Eleven in Adelaide.
