

Jen & Ryan Tate

Animal Trainers

Ryan and Jen Tate are a unique, fascinating couple whose work and lives are intertwined by their passion for animals. Both have been working as animal trainers in the industry for over 20 years, combined. It is hard to find a species of animal they haven't worked with.

After enjoying many working years at the famous Taronga Zoo, the couple launched their own business, Tate Animal Training. Not only specialising in household dog training but also detection and behavioural work. Ryan specialises in training and handling detection dogs and Jen's focus in puppy development and private consultations. In addition to their work incomparable animal work, the Tate's released their first book 'How to Train Your Dog' in March of 2021.
